DATE OF SERVICE: _____

YOU ARE GUILTY OF AN UNLAWFUL DETAINER.
YOU ARE REQUIRED TO QUIT THE PREMISES.

YOU CAN CONTEST THIS NOTICE and state the reasons you are not guilty of an unlawful detainer by filing an Affidavit (or Answer) before the court's close of business<sup>1</sup> on the fifth (5th) full judicial day<sup>2</sup> following the Date of Service of this notice. You can fill out the forms and file electronically at <https://nevada.tylerhost.net/SRL/srl/> (choose "SUMMARY EVICTION: Tenant's Answer"). If you do not have internet access, you can file your forms in-person at the Las Vegas Justice Court, located at 200 Lewis Avenue, Las Vegas, NV 89155.

If the court determines that you are guilty of an unlawful detainer, the court may issue a summary order for your removal or an order providing for your nonadmittance, directing the sheriff or constable to post the order in a conspicuous place on the premises not later than 24 hours after the order is received by the sheriff or constable. The sheriff or constable shall then remove you not earlier than 24 hours but not later than 36 hours after the posting of the order. You may request that the court stay the execution of the order for removal or nonadmittance for a period of no more than 10 days by stating the reasons why a stay is warranted.

Pursuant to NRS 118A.390, you may seek relief if a landlord unlawfully removes you from the premises, or excludes you by blocking or attempting to block your entry upon the premises, or willfully interrupts or causes or permits the interruption of an essential service required by the rental agreement or chapter 118A of the Nevada Revised Statutes.

If you are in default in the payment of rent, rental assistance is available at <https://chap.clarkcountynv.gov>. If you have a pending application for rental assistance, or if your landlord has refused to participate in the rental assistance process or has refused to accept rental assistance on your behalf, you have the right to assert those facts as a defense to this eviction at any point in the proceedings. Should you assert this defense to the court, the court will determine if your case is designated as one that may be paused until a determination on your rental assistance application is made or until a hearing is held for you to prove the validity of your claim of the landlord's refusal.

Your landlord  IS NOT  IS requesting an exemption from any pause in this eviction case due to a realistic threat of foreclosure of the rental property if unable to evict you.

Additionally, if the court determines that your case is designated as one mandating mediation, you may receive an order setting a hearing and notification of mediation after you file an affidavit contesting the eviction notice. The eviction case will be paused for not more than 30 days to facilitate mediation.

Tenants are advised that the Las Vegas Justice Court has information on its website concerning the availability of mediation, government-sponsored rental assistance, and electronic filing for the Tenant Affidavit, among other matters. A tenant may access this information at <http://lasvegasjusticecourt.us/>
